

Vodrick Anderson is a 3rd year Transfer student and Bachelors of science in Applied Physics scholar. He hails from Clarksville Tennessee where he was raised alongside his mother, father, and 4 siblings. His areas of research interest include the history and philosophy of science, actuarial mathematics and mathematics education. In his spare time he enjoys reading, exercising and going to the beach,