GIVE A TED^x TALK

We are beyond excited to bring TED^x to Florida A&M University's campus and alumni network! TED^x Events, an independently organized TED event, provides communities with the platform to share unique ideas that foster thought-provoking conversations. To ensure that we put forth a memorable event that represents the diversity and excellence of TED^x and FAMU, we are inviting all current FAMU students, faculty & staff and alumni to apply to be a speaker. Please refer to the following information before starting your application:

What is a TEDx Talk?

What makes a great TED Talk?

Outline of the Timeline (Remember, we are working with even less time!)

Content Guidelines

Speaker's Guide

Things to Note:

1. The speaker lineup will not be confirmed until October 15th, candidates are not guaranteed a spot on the lineup until then.
2. Candidates must attend our mandatory speaker workshops September 17th, September 24th, October 8th, and October 22nd.
3. Speakers must be present in person for the dress rehearsal on November 11th
4. Speakers must be present in person for the event on November 12th.
